Episurf Medical obtains its first granted patents in China

Episurf Medical is obtaining two granted patents in China. The Chinese Patent Office SIPO has issued Notice of allowance for two patents related to surgical tools in Episurf's technology platform. The Chinese patents for Implant specific drill bit and Height adjustment drill guide are expected to be granted and issued in Q2 2017. The technologies covered by these patents enable high precision positioning of Episurf Medical's implant Episealer®.

"This is the first time the company obtains a granted patent in China. It is a step forward in Episurf's efforts of securing intellectual property protection globally" comments Pål Ryfors, acting CEO of Episurf Medical.
